

Eleanore Oakes Award for Education Program Design

This award recognizes outstanding achievement and innovation in education program design that enhances conservation knowledge and/or promotes positive conservation attitudes and behavior. Successful submissions will demonstrate creativity, innovation, goal setting and include a means to measure success.

Eligibility -CAZA institutional or educational affiliate members

A. CANDIDATE

Program Title: _____

Date program initiated: _____

B. APPLICANT

Institution Name: _____

Address: _____

Name and position title of chief executive: _____

Institution Size: 30 FTEs or More 29 FTEs or Fewer

(If you are unsure of the number of FTE's you have reported to the National Office contact info@caza.ca for your current status)

C. NARRATIVE—maximum of six (6) pages. Must be in “word” format. Do not submit PDF materials

Program description including unique approaches applied and goals to be achieved.

Program development and implementation.

Outcomes achieved in relation to program goals.

D. IMAGES—Five high quality digital images that illustrate the program—to be used during the Annual Conference Awards Ceremony.

E. SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS

Either a power point presentation with a maximum of 12 slides or 12 jpeg images may be submitted with the application. Please do not submit any videos.

All material submitted in support of the application must be in electronic format. No hard copies of materials should be submitted..

G. COLLABORATION (if applicable)

List any partners to the project and their roles.

H. SUBMITTER

The SUBMITTER is that person responsible for the contents of the entry.

Name: _____

Position title: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail address: _____

I. APPLICATION DEADLINE

No applications will be accepted after August 1st